March 16, 2012
Parlamentino CNEL, Rome:

PlasticsEurope Youth Parliament Debate Final

The 2012 grand final of the PlasticsEurope Youth Parliament Debate will be held in Rome, the city where the treaties establishing the European Community were signed in 1957.

On March 16, 2012, students representing five European countries will participate in the final. The Parlamentino of CNEL, in Villa Borghese will be the stylish setting for this event that brings together young people to debate sustainability and plastics.

The students qualified for this final during previous Youth Parliament Debates in Bulgaria, Croatia, Germany, Italy and Turkey. They are all winners - now they meet to find out who will be Europe's best.

Be part of this unique event. We are looking forward to seeing you in Rome: Parlamentino CNEL, Villa Borghese, Viale Lubin, 2.
